Personal statement

My name is Rob, from the UK and currently in Seoul looking to join a school to teach English here. My background is in the Arts and I went on to study a B.A Hons in Illustration. I've got a couple of years teaching experience, one year teaching in a Thai Secondary School and another as a private tutor, for Korean students, in Sydney, Australia. I'm a very friendly and outgoing person and love to help others. My Korean is at a basic level but I'm learning every day.
