

Steven Roe

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Details

Profile

I have recently graduated from The University of Gloucestershire, U.K, with First Class honours in Music Production. I am now seeking employment with a school to teach English as a second language with no preference of age. I hold a 120-hour TEFL qualification and also have one to one teaching experience.

Work Experience

One to One English Tutor: July 2015 – to present
My own business in which I teach English as a second language on a one to one basis.

O2: March 2014 – to present
Sales Advisor and Security Technician

Qualifications

Bachelor of Arts Degree with First Class Honours in Music Production at The University of Gloucestershire

TEFL Certified – 120 Hours

Other Honors

Speaker at the University of Gloucestershire Research Symposium

Received a first for my dissertation: Debating the end of the loudness wars and what it may take to truly help end it and discussing how to regain dynamic range within our music.

Composed the soundtrack for a short film that received ‘Best Student Film’ award at the L.A Independent Film Festival

Reference available upon request.